Porno Dealer Changes Her Evil Ways After Dead Husband Returns From Hell!

Warning from beyond the grave turns wicked sinner into saint

by Kurt Kramer

A widow who was a sleazy slumlord and porno dealer for 30 years became a God-fearing pillar of society overnight – after her husband paid a visit from Hell!

"I am a changed woman", trembling Sophia Nero 53, told reporters in Rome, Italy. "I've had a glimpse of Hell through my husband's eyes, and I'll do anything to keep from joining him there."

Before her eerie encounter, the widow operated a small empire of rat-infested slum apartments outside Rome and ran an underworld porno ring that produced magazines for sale overseas.

"My husband Sal and I ran the business together before he died last year. We lived in style, but we were living off the misery and appetites of others. After Sal died, I took over the entire operation myself and was very pleased with the life I was leading."

But all that changed the day Sal appeared in Sophia's bedroom. His eyes burned like coals. "He stood before me, a broken soul, so different from the cocky, confident man I knew for 30 years," the reformed porno queen told reporters.

"He told me he'd been condemned to life in Hell. He said it was far worse than anything he'd imagined and he warned me I'd be joining him there if I didn't mend my ways. To live in Hell is to have a body that is constantly on fire."

BETANIA I, UNUSUAL CHURCH APPROVED APPARITION SITE

What has made Venezuela's, Betania, different than any other apparition site is, that while the appearances there were initially given to Maria, many of the subsequent supernatural events occurred independent of her. The most momentous of these occurred on March 25, 1984, when successive apparitions were witnessed by a total of 108 people.

(Note: This was the exact day, that Pope John Paul II, dedicated the Immaculate Heart of Mary, to the whole world, with all the bishops of the world, as directed by Our Lady of Fatima 1917...)

It was this event that started the local bishops to investigate alleged events, where literally hundreds of people saw the Mother of God at Betania. She appeared as Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal, as the Virgin of Lourdes, and Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Most witnesses saw her as a type of living statue or as a manifestation formed in luminous light, smoke, or clouds. The sun began to pulsate as in Fatima as a Blue Butterfly began to flutter as Our Lady appeared. Pilgrims also reported seeing "glitter" or sparkly particles falling as strange lights radiated through the apparition area and this happen several times. A giant cross also appeared above the mountain, as many miraculous cures happened at the same time.

According to Dr. Arrieta, who studied at Harvard is was reported that more than 1,000 healings occurred in

“Then he pressed the palm of his hand against a heavy wooden door and his palm burned into the wood like a branding iron. A moment later he vanished, leaving his handprint behind as a reminder of his warning. But believe me, that terrifying message burned itself into my mind as clearly as his handprint had burned into the door. I wasn’t about to forget.”

That night, Sophia visited a priest to confess her sins and beg forgiveness. “She took me to her home and showed me the handprint on the door,” said Father Angelo Macchi. “After seeing that and hearing her story, I have no doubt her husband paid her a visit from Hell.”

The next day the shaken lady disbanded her illegal pornography operation and began turning her run-down tenements into luxury apartments, which she gave to the city to be used as low-rent housing for the poor.

“Sophia made a full confession and her activities to the police,” said Father Macchi. “But nothing has come of it because she is living the life of a model citizen. She has given all her money to charity and lives in a tiny apartment right next door to my church.”

“She is a woman who truly has found God and probably just in the nick of time.”

HOW TO OBTAIN LOVE, HAPPINESS, AND PEACE

By Sister Katrina of the Missionaries of Charity, from the book, Mother Teresa, A SIMPLE FAITH

“I was working at the cerebral palsy center in New York and I was praying daily. One day somebody asked me what I was so happy about, intimating that I might have fallen in love with someone. But it wasn’t exactly that, it was feeling the love of God. I was so happy and so fulfilling as my relationship with God was growing. That made me full of Joy.”

Joy is love, joy is prayer, joy is strength. God loves a person who gives joyfully, and if you give joyfully you always give more. A joyful heart is the result of a heart burning with love.

Works of love are always works of joy. We don’t need to look for happiness, if we have love for others and we’ll be given it. It is a gift of God.

Note: From Saint John Vianney, The Cure of Ars, The Patron Saint of Parish Priests: We are only in the world for God himself, we shall never be HAPPY if we do not serve HIM with ZEAL and LOVE.

St. Teresa of Avila, Carmelite, Mystic and Doctor of the Church “Her testimony after visiting Hell”

(Condensed version.)

While I was at prayer one day, I found myself in a moment, without knowing how, plunged into Hell. I understood that it was Our Lord’s will that I should see the place which the devils kept in readiness for me, and which I had deserved by my sins. It lasted but for a moment. But it seems to me impossible that I should ever forget it even if I were to live many years.

... There is no exaggeration in what I am saying. ... I felt fire in my soul but such that I am still able to describe. My bodily sufferings were unendurable. I have undergone most painful sufferings in this life...

I was paralyzed without speaking of other ills of different types – there is neither intermission nor end to them. ... All the burning here in this life is as nothing compared with the fire that is there.

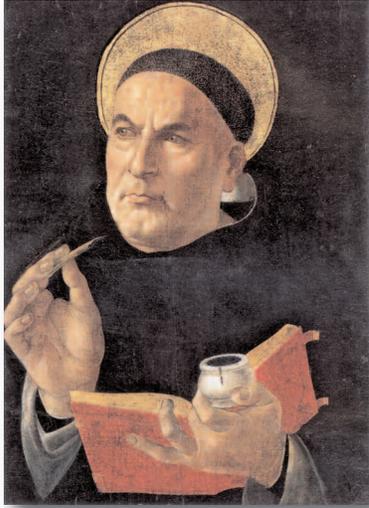

...I remember no time in which I do not think that all we have to suffer in this world is nothing. It seems to me we complain without reason. ... Ever since that time everything seems endurable in comparison with one instant of suffering such as those I had then to bear in Hell. ... Here we know that pain at last ends with life, and that there are limits to it, yet the sight of it moves us so greatly to compassion. ... and it gave me the most vehement desires for the salvation of souls, I believe that to save even one soul from those overwhelming torments, I would endure many deaths. ... I know not how we can be calm when we see Satan carry so many souls daily away.

This also makes me wish that, in a matter which concerns us so much, we did not rest satisfied with doing less than we can do on our part, that we left nothing undone. May Our Lord vouchsafe to give us his Grace for that end?”

ST. THOMAS ADVICE ABOUT IMMIGRATION

(Abbreviated Version)

By John Horvat, Member of National Association of Christian Economists, author of "Return to Order". Speaker & Educator appeared in most TV news shows as well as writings in The Wall Street Journal & The Washington Times.

Immigration may seem like a modern problem, but St. Thomas in his masterpiece, Summa Theologica, question 105, article 3 (1-11, Q 105, Art, 3), one will find his analysis based on biblical insights that can add to the national debate of the present day.

St. Thomas: "Man's relations with foreigners are twofold: Peaceful, and hostile: and in directing both kinds of relation the law contained suitable precepts."

Commentary: In making this affirmation, St. Thomas affirms that not all immigrants are equal. Every nation had the right to decide which immigrants are beneficial, and peaceful, to the common good. As a matter of self-defense, the State can reject those criminal elements, traitors, enemies, and others who deems harmful or hostile to its citizens.

The second thing he affirms is that the manner of dealing with immigration is determined by law in cases of both beneficial and hostile immigration. The state has the right and duty to apply the law.

St. Thomas recognizes that there will be those who will want to stay, and become citizens of the lands they visit. However he sets as the first condition for acceptance a desire to integrate; fully into what today be considered the life of the nation.

Granting citizenship would not be immediate. The integration process takes time. People need to adapt themselves to the nation. He quotes the philosopher Aristotle as saying this process was once deemed to take two to three generations. St. Thomas does not give a time frame, but does admit it can take time.

St. Thomas: "The reason for this was that if foreigners were allowed to meddle with the affairs of a nation as soon as they settled down in the midst, many dangers might occur, since the foreigners not yet having the common good firmly at heart might attempt something hurtful to the citizens."

Commentary: A proportional immigration has always been a healthy development in society since it injects new life and qualities into a social body. But when it loses that proportion and undermines the purpose of the state, it threatens the well-being of the nation.

When this happens, the nation would do well to follow the advice of St. Thomas and biblical principles. The nation must practice justice and charity towards all, including foreigners, but it must above all safeguard the common good and its "unity", without which no country can long endure.

PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S REQUIREMENTS FOR IMMIGRATION

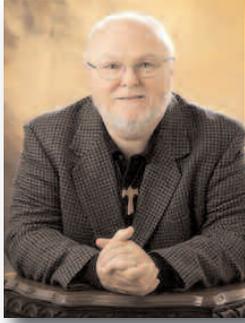

(As presented in 1907.)

"In the first place, we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes an American and assimilates himself to us. They shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such person because of creed, or birthplace. But it is predicated upon the person's becoming in every facet an American and nothing but an American. There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have no room for but one flag, the American Flag. We have no room for but one language here, and that is the English language, and we have room for but one sole loyalty, and that is a loyalty to the American People."

Betania at that time. He himself was cured of advanced prostate cancer that metastasized to his spine. Others were cured of paralysis, liver disorders, and leukemia.

EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLE

Additionally, holy relics have been miraculously found in Betania. On December 14, 1985, when Maria Esperanza felt compelled to go to the creek nearby, she spotted a rock, pulled it from the creek bed and in turning it over saw that it held a white image of Our Virgin Mother.

On December 8, 1991 during Mass, at the Betania

Sanctuary, after the Consecration the Host began to bleed, a True Eucharistic Miracle. The local bishop, Pio Bello, immediately had the occurrence scientifically investigated by a laboratory in Caracas. The bishop gave it full approval, after the scientists proved the blood that leaked from the host was human blood.

Our Mother Queen of Peace-Betania XIII has also medically documented a miracle cure of a child with cancer. The documentation has been sent to Betania, Venezuela. The mother gave a full testimony, of the miracle, at one of our meetings four years ago. It was a non-Catholic family.
